

Stories of Strength

United Way
St. Croix Valley

Somerset Community Food Pantry has been receiving healthy food each month from United Way St. Croix Valley through the John Coughlin Food & Resource Center. This summer, the food pantry also began receiving fresh produce each week through United Way St. Croix Valley's "food rescue" partnership with Family Fresh Market. Thanks to this new support, the Somerset Food Pantry has now launched a new healthy produce distribution every week to help feed their neighbors in need.

"Our family is struggling with mounting medical bills, crushing debt from school and school loans, and borrowing from one paycheck to pay the bills for the next. I call us 'the working poor.' Sometimes we need the food pantry to make ends meet. THANK YOU for helping us. I am so grateful!"
