

Your Gifts = Building Strong Communities

United Way St. Croix Valley advances the common good by creating opportunities for all. We focus on projects supporting education, financial stability and health--the building blocks for a good quality of life.

$5

= Blanket for a person in emergency shelter

= Five books for children in need

$10

= Box of nails for home repairs

= Backpack with food to feed a family on a weekend

= Light housekeeping help for a person in a wheelchair

$20

= 100 diapers for families in need

= Toiletries kits for two families of four

= Screening of a possible volunteer mentor

$30

= Onions, potatoes and other vegetables for ten families

$50

= Ten rides to radiation and chemotherapy treatments

= Ten student tutor training and resource packets

= Day of food and shelter for one person

$100

= Hour of in-school chemical health prevention

= Six weeks of Play & Learn classes for one family

= Opportunity for a girl to spend a night on a college campus, envisioning her life as a college student and setting goals for her future

= Ten gas cards for young parent group participants

$135

= 90-minute debt and personal budget counseling

$250

= Four hours of one-on-one vocational training for a person with a disability

= Month of home visits with a parent educator for a family

$1,000

= Professional support for a child and family facing adversity for one year, by providing a caring, adult mentor

= Ten therapy sessions for five families

$1,500

= One month of Intensive Trauma Healing services that helps a youth grieve loss, heal trauma, and restore trust